

The Consumer Bankers Association has petitioned to have Indiana's no-call list aligned with the federal rules.

Indiana has the right to impose its own rules. I further believe that giving banks the right to call previous customers who have requested no calls is an infringement on the individual's rights.

I request that there be NO CHANGE to Indiana's no-call rules!